
CHALET LE MARTI

Traditional village house in the centre of Argentiere

This large traditional village house built at the end of the 19th century has undergone a complete renovation and combines perfect comfort, warmth, conviviality and mountain spirit. All the more so by its design, its high-level services and its location, Chalet Le Marti presents itself as the perfect place for ski holidays with family or friends.

In the heart of the old village of Argentière, Chalet Le Marti is a spacious 320m². In addition to its many bedrooms and bathrooms, there is also a spacious living room and a dining room separated by a large fireplace. The chalet also offers a splendid view of Mont Blanc from the master suite, a terrace without vis-à-vis, a sauna in the basement and a jacuzzi located in the outdoor patio. Everything you need to relax after an intensive day of mountain activities.

The layout of the villa ensures optimal privacy: Chalet Le Marti is arranged on 4 levels, has 7 double bedrooms each with its own bathroom and can accommodate up to 16 people, which is extremely rare in the Chamonix valley. It has been decorated with refined and timeless materials and displays a modern and warm style that will offer all the comfort of an exceptional property.
